Marina Bay Sands welcomes Korean stars of KBS drama Spy Myung Wol

Singapore (15 June 2011) - Marina Bay Sands, Asia's leading destination for entertainment, shopping and business, welcomes Korean stars Eric Mun, Han Ye-Seul, Jang Hee Jin and Lee Jin Uk to its property for the highly anticipated KBS drama, Spy Myung Wol.

The romantic-comedy, in which a beautiful North Korean spy Myung-Wol (Han Ye-Seul) goes to South Korea in an attempt to kidnap a popular Korean male entertainer Kang Woo (Eric), had many scenes filmed at the iconic Marina Bay Sands in Singapore, which is a venue sponsor for the show.

The production crew and entourage were here from 6 to 16 June, with about 50 hotel rooms booked for the entire cast and crew. Spy Myung Wol was filmed at various locations within the property, including the ArtScience Museum at Marina Bay Sands, Sands SkyPark, The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, Event Plaza, hotel suites and lobby.

Press Release

“Marina Bay Sands sees working with Victory Productions & Company and The G1 Communications as a way to reach out to people in Korea who have heard about, but not seen Marina Bay Sands, or even to those who have no knowledge that such an architectural wonder stands iconic in the Singapore skyline,” said a Marina Bay Sands spokesperson.

“And when the producers showed us the script for a movie starring the biggest names in Korea who have worldwide appeal, and the broadcaster that the series would be aired on, it was an opportunity too good to turn down. This is a way for us to show what Marina Bay Sands is about through the popular media, via the characters living in the premises and enjoying the facilities that we have to offer.”
