

Established brands launch new-to-market stores at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands

Bath and Body Works, Hackett and La Martina to debut in Singapore and enhance retail options for shoppers

Singapore (18 December 2013) - The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands welcomes Bath & Body Works, Hackett and La Martina as the newest additions to its line-up of new-to-market labels. With the unique collections presented by these well renowned brands, shoppers at Marina Bay Sands will be presented with an even more extensive array of retail options under one roof.

La Martina¹ recently opened its newest boutique at The Shoppes, the brand's latest addition to its 61 stores all over the world, including the United States of America, Europe, Russia, Dubai and Malaysia.

Synonymous with elegance, prestige and tradition, the Argentinean sports and leisure clothing label was first known for producing professional technical equipment for polo players, and later for its stylish Polo shirts today. The 2,200 square feet boutique is characterized by the Anglo-Argentine classical vintage style that features traditional furniture, vintage Persian carpets and walls painted in rich shades of red, green and ochre.

Synonymous with the sport of Polo, luxury sports and leisure clothing brand La Martina opens at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands

¹ La Martina is located at B1-82/82A, Galleria Level, The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands

Also adding to the extensive mix of ready-to-wear options at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands this month is British luxury menswear label Hackett². The 2,575 square foot store will offer a full range of formal wear and gentlemen's club-style accessories.

Hackett, with an impeccable 19th century heritage, is a purveyor of stylish men's clothes

A symbol of all that is best in British style today, the designer menswear label takes inspiration from a number of influences and activities that emulate the unique fusion of tradition and modernity. The established global brand has 63 standalone stores worldwide, and the store at The Shoppes will be its fourth outlet in Southeast Asia after two in Malaysia and one in the Philippines.

Come February, famous North American brand Bath & Body Works³ will make its Asia debut in Singapore at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, opening doors to a brand new store concept. Spanning across 3,000 square feet, the store offers shoppers luxurious fragrances, hand and body care, as well as home collections amidst a sensory playground.

Bath & Body Works also offers exceptional accessories and gifts, making it the ultimate gifting destination

² Hackett will be located at B2-230/231/231A, Canal Level, The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands (Opening Dec 2013)

³ Bath & Body Works will be located at B2-42, Canal Level, The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands (Opening Feb 2014)

With operations in more than 100 locations internationally, Bath & Body Works at The Shoppes is the brand's first foray into Asia. The exclusive brands available in-store include its signature collection, home fragrances, hand soap, sanitizers, aromatherapy oils as well as spa performance products.
