Dom Pérignon

In the 17th century, Dom Pierre Pérignon declared his intention to "make the best wine in the world." Today they perpetuate that creative ambition with each Vintage champagne they elaborate, striving toward harmony as a powerful source of emotion. Dom Pérignon's creative ambition is a perpetual quest for harmony as a source of emotion. Every creative process faces constraints. For Dom Pérignon, this means always a vintage wine. An unyielding commitment to bear witness to the harvest of a single year, whatever the challenges, even going as far as not declaring a vintage.

Champagne

Egly-Ouriet

Egly-Ouriet Champagne is sensual, unforgettable and highly sought after, a "cult" wine for Champagne lovers who crave the power and finesse of Pinot Noir-based wines. When we witnessed the transition in the 1980s from Michael Egly to his son, Francis, it was clear that Francis wasn't going to be satisfied with the Champagne status quo. He doesn't consider his competition among the great Champagne houses, but instead among the legendary producers of Burgundy.

Henri Giraud

François Hémart founded Champagne Henri Giraud at the beginning of the 17th century when the family settled in the village of Aÿ in the Champagne region of France. The vineyard was wiped out during the phylloxera outbreak and was replanted with grafted vines by Léon Giraud at the beginning of the 20th century. At the helm today is the 12th generation, Claude Giraud, who oversees the handcrafting of their top cuvée, Fût de Chêne Grand Cru d'Aÿ, alongside other world-class Champagne such as their Argonne, which is only made in stellar vintages.

Jacquesson

Despite more than 200 years of history, Jacquesson has become a revolutionary among Champagne's established houses, under the leadership of brothers Laurent and Jean-Hervé Chiquet. Since then, the house has adopted a herbicide-free, terroir-based philosophy. It also retired, after 150 years, its non-vintage blend and replaced it with a groundbreaking single-vintage-based cuvée, which changes yearly. And next came its terroir-based cuvées, an unprecedented move for a traditional house.

Krug

Krug Champagne founded by Joseph Krug in 1843. It is based principally in Reims, the main city in France's Champagne region and is one of the famous Champagne houses that formed part of the Grande Marques. Today the house is majority owned by the multinational conglomerate LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton S.A. whose portfolio includes other well known wine brands such as Moët & Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Château d'Yquem and Ruinart. Despite LVMH's majority ownership, the Krug family is still actively involved in all the key decisions of the house.

Champagne

Lanson

Since 2006 it has been owned by Lanson-BCC group headed by Bruno Paillard. Lanson was founded in 1760 by a magistrate, François Delamotte. He was succeeded by his son Nicholas-Louis in 1798 and formed a partnership with Jean-Baptiste Lanson, who, in 1837, gave the company the name of Lanson et Cie. The company focused, as still today, on exporting champagne to foreign markets. Lanson remains a purveyor of champagne to the British Royal Family and displays the coat of arms of Elizabeth II on its bottles.

Laurent Perrier

Laurent-Perrier is a Champagne house founded in 1812. It is the main company of the Laurent-Perrier Group, whose other flagship brands include the houses of Salon, De Castellane and Delamotte. Laurent-Perrier Group also acquired Château Malakoff as of 2004. The success of Laurent-Perrier was also driven by their efforts which are now focused on perpetuating exacting standards and elegance and on preserving the independence of a House while asserting the epicurean vision of the brand.

Louis Roederer

Since its founding in 1776, it was inherited and renamed by Louis Roederer in 1833. It remains today as one of the only still independent and family-run maisons de champagne. The House of Champagne Louis Roederer has been "in pursuit of the ultimate" and is synonymous with the world's great Champagnes. With over 70% of the grapes coming from its own estate vineyards, and the largest percentage of vineyard ownership of any major Champagne house, Louis Roederer is proud to have such careful control over the quality of its grapes.

Perrier-Jouët

This origin story of those house dates to 1810, when the Épernay-based cork supplier Pierre Nicolas Perrier married Rose Adélaide Jouët, the daughter of a Calvados producer. Perrier's family owned vineyards in Dizy, Chouilly, Aÿ. The newlyweds begin producing champagne under the name Perrier-Jouët. Adèle focused on vineyards and winemaking; Pierre Nicolas focused on sales and marketing. Today the house is under the Pernod Ricard umbrella of brands.

Champagne

Pol Roger

Distinction and elegance. Established in 1849, Pol Roger is the "Gentlemen's Champagne, as Jean Paul Kauffman wrote in 'Voyage en Champagne". It is not surprising therefore the British Royal family should have made it their favourite over the years. The purity and nobility of Champagne Pol Roger is also the fruit of know-how passed down from generation to generation. From the harvest in the region's best vineyards to the painstaking work in the cellar, each gesture has its importance.

Ruinart

Ruinart is the oldest established Champagne house, exclusively producing champagne since 1729. Founded by Nicolas Ruinart in the Champagne region in the city of Reims, the house is today owned by the parent company LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton SA. The first delivery of "wine with bubbles" went out in January, 1730. At first the sparkling wine was a business gift for cloth purchasers, as Dom Ruinart's brother was a cloth merchant, but 6 years later Maison Ruinart terminated its cloth selling activities due to success in the Champagne business.

From protecting biodiversity on its land, to using 100% renewable electricity, Champagne Telmont is determined to radically lower its environmental footprint, making Leonardo Dicaprio proud to join as an investor. Opus One Collection

Opus One is the realized dream of two men: Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Chateau Mouton Rothschild in Bordeaux and Napa Valley vintner Robert Mondavi. Together, both founders set out to create a single wine dedicated to the pursuit of uncompromising quality. This singular mission shapes every vintage, today and for generations to come. The essence of time is expressed in Opus One by the character of each vintage. Place, often defined as terroir, represents the geography, the climate and the essential human element which is captured in the wine's balance between power and finesse, structure and texture. In Spago we are proud to showcase a vertical vintages of this legendary wine estate from 2005 to 2021.
