Singapore (24 October 2015) – Marina Bay Sands welcomed a star-studded cast of celebrities from Hong Kong this evening, as they lit up the integrated resort with special appearances for StarHub TVB Awards 2015. The event, held at Marina Bay Sands for the fifth consecutive year, witnessed a couple of firsts including a red carpet special at the Skating Rink.

25 TVB artistes – the strongest cast yet – including Kenneth Ma, Ruco Chan, Moses Chan and Linda Chung, turned up in their glittery best to kick off the event at the Rink, treating the fans and members of the public to a visual extravaganza.

All eyes were set on stage when red carpet emcees Jeremy Tian and Veracia Yong bantered with the glamorous artistes, many of whom have been hosted by Marina Bay Sands for this award over the past few years.

“This is the fifth year that Marina Bay Sands has had the privilege to host the Starhub TVB Awards. For the very first time, the awards red carpet is held at our Skating Rink, where fans can get up close and personal with their favourite TVB stars and enjoy an unobstructed 360-degree view of this glitzy celebration. As with any high octane event at Marina Bay Sands, it is our desire to bring people closer to the action. The Starhub TVB Award red carpet event is a classic showcase of the integrated resort’s ability to bring top-class entertainment to our guests,” said Mr. Maunik Thacker, Senior Vice President of Marketing, Marina Bay Sands.

The Award Presentation took place after the red carpet walk, at the Grand Theatre, MasterCard Theatres at Marina Bay Sands. The awards, recognising and honouring the best in Hong Kong TV, featured 15 awards categories with 12 opened to public voting.

The 2015 Awards is also a celebration of Singapore's Golden Jubilee. A four-month long fan engagement campaign was launched in July with events culminating in the long-awaited StarHub TVB Awards at Marina Bay Sands. Additionally, a special commemorative award, Star of the Stars, was also presented to the deserving TVB artiste. The award recognises the artiste's ability to forge a strong emotional connection with Singaporean audiences throughout the years across multiple roles.
