ARTSCIENCE LATE

ELECTRIC ANIMISM AND A HUMBLE ATHEIST

Thursday | 16 May | 8pm

Electric Animism and a Humble Atheist is a sound and moving-image show featuring intersections of the creative practices of Dharma (in music) and Hun Ping (in film). In the course of this collaboration, they imagine alternate realities in the world around us, and explore overlapping notions in the spectrum of devotional, spiritual and theoretical beliefs which inform their individual practices.

The performance will showcase music from Dharma's latest album Electric Animism together with Hun Ping's recent film Dance of a Humble Atheist and reconstructions of his past experimental films.

SUB:SHAMAN

Thursday | 20 Jun | 8pm

Taking inspiration from the dream-states of Wonderland, sub:shaman creates a performance that explores the subterranean state of sleep, where submerged psychologies play out in an intriguing dreamscape of electronic hues.

sub:shaman are sound-makers who continue to reinvent and redefine the structure and boundaries of their music, with a preference for the dark, groovy and occasionally chaotic. The group comprises Isa Ong (Pleasantry, Amateur Takes Control), weish (.gif), Hanis Isahak (Spacedays), Isa Foong (blankverse) and Syahadi Samad (Paris In The Making, Windtree).

Free admission.
